

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of May 8, 2026 by and between Larkspur Analytics, LLC ("Larkspur") and the undersigned counterparty ("Counterparty"). Each Party may disclose confidential information to the other in connection with evaluating a potential business relationship.

1. Definition of Confidential Information

Confidential Information means any and all information of any kind whatsoever, in any form, that is disclosed by or on behalf of the disclosing Party or that the receiving Party observes, learns, derives, or otherwise acquires, whether or not marked or identified as confidential, including all notes, analyses, and derivative materials, and including information the receiving Party knew before disclosure or develops independently. Nothing is excluded from this definition.

2. Obligations of the Receiving Party

The receiving Party shall hold the disclosing Party's Confidential Information in strict confidence, shall not disclose it to any third party, and shall use it solely to evaluate the potential business relationship between the Parties. The receiving Party shall protect the Confidential Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of like importance.

3. Term

The obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement shall commence on the date first written above and shall continue in perpetuity, surviving indefinitely and never expiring, regardless of whether the Parties enter into any further agreement or whether the potential business relationship is abandoned.

4. Indemnification

The receiving Party shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the disclosing Party from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses of any nature whatsoever arising out of or relating to any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information by the receiving Party, without any cap or limitation on the amount of such liability and regardless of the theory of liability.

5. Return of Materials

Upon the written request of the disclosing Party, the receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all materials containing Confidential Information and, at the disclosing Party's request, certify in writing that it has done so. This obligation applies to all copies, summaries, and derivative materials in the receiving Party's possession or control.

6. No License

Nothing in this Agreement grants the receiving Party any license or right, by implication or otherwise, to any patent, copyright, trademark, or trade secret of the disclosing Party. All Confidential Information remains the property of the disclosing Party.
